

HUMAN RIGHTS AT SEA

CORRECTIONS POLICY

Adopted: Sept 2020

Renewed: October 2025

Policy Statement

Human Rights at Sea (HRAS) CIC is committed to upholding the highest level of factual accuracy in all its website and online platform content. If you believe that you have found an inaccuracy on our web content, documents or other media embedded in or linked to the sites, please contact us at: enquiries@humanrightsatsea.org

You should specify the exact nature of the alleged inaccuracy along with the publication (title, page number, web address and date). HRAS will review and moderate all such correction requests and respond accordingly.

Scope of Policy

The policy applies to all beneficiaries, supporters, employees, volunteers, management, partners, consultants and service suppliers.
